Rick Urban "Shaper of Wood"
From A Log to a Rough Bowl to a Perfect Bowl

Rick Urban began his woodturning in earnest in 2003 and has developed a repertoire of techniques and styles including lost wood art, ovaloids, eggs, belted balls, and bowls of all shapes. His work is often embellished with amazing texture and color.

Check out his website: rickurbanwoodturner.com.

Log to Bowl

In this demo I cover transforming a log into a rough turned bowl.

- Processing the log.
- Hazards to avoid.
- Minimizing cracks.
- Planning ahead for form and figure.
- Finding the bowl in the log.
- Preparing the bowl blank.
- Safety in mounting and turning the bowl.
- Turning the bowl.
- Drying the bowl.

...with all of this informed by...

- What I wish I had known when I began turning.
- The advice I wish I had taken when I began turning.
- The mistakes I made when I began turning.
- The lessons I wish I had learned a lot earlier.

President's Corner

Steve Kellner

I think we can say winter has finally left. I've already mowed the lawn twice, but, hopefully, spring cleanup won't cut into turning time too much.

We had an excellent meeting in March with the queen of finials, Cindy Droza, showing us not only how to turn a beautiful finial, but how to choose appropriate proportions as well. It was a bit of an upgrade over my attempt last fall, but she didn't use a skew so maybe my presentation was not all in vain!

This suggests a question I'd like some feedback on: do you prefer IRD (remote) demos presented by experts or hands-on demos presented by less expert members of our club? Ron Bishop and Dave Bushman have given us a nice mix over the last few years. Is the mix about right or should we change the blend. The problem with having more hands-on demos is finding willing demonstrators. Are you willing to get up in front of the group and turn something? Heck, I've proven it does not take an expert to try turning something (and maybe make a mistake or two). We're a good bunch. Let us know if you are willing to teach us something! Thanks for listening.

PARKING LOT SALE

The estate of Carlisle Childress has donated a substantial amount of kits (pen kits, clock kits, salt/pepper shakers and mills, lamp kits, cane heads, some tools, and many other miscellaneous kits too numerous to mention). These items are priced at 25-33% of retail, or less. There is only one hour to work with and A LOT to choose from.

In place of Turner's Talk at 5:30, April 17, the sale will be in the parking lot in front of the Dollar General Store located near Woodcraft.

Please bring and wear your badge to the meeting!

If you want one, please contact Larry Yancey, lpYancey@gmail.com. The first one is free to members. There is a fee of $10.00 to replace a lost one.

Calling Richmond Woodturners!

We have been invited to participate in the Farm Field Day at Meadow Farm Museum at Crump Park on Saturday April 26th from 11-2 pm. We did this last year and it rained, but because this aligns with our mission we are accepting the invitation again this year. Mark your calendars: April 26th from 11-2. Please let me know if you can participate. Everyone present last year had fun and enjoyed the time. YOU MAY SET UP YOUR OWN TABLE TO SELL ITEMS. You will be totally responsible for that if you choose to do so. We would love to have at least 5-10 people. We ARE planning to have the clubs small lathe operational. Come join us. Questions? Write John Daniel, Activities Director at jwdaniel@me.com OR call his cell phone at 804-928-2234.

Farm Field Day at Meadow Farm Museum At Crump Park

April 26th, 11-2 pm (with set up prior)
3400 Mountain Road
Glenn Allen, VA 23060

The County of Henrico has invited us to participate in this event. They normally have well over 1000 people. We plan to have a lathe and need demonstrators for the three hour period. We will have space for show and tell items which also can be for sale.

We welcome all who can come but are seeking 5-10 members to participate for part or all of the three hours. (FYI, in the event of bad weather this event will most likely be canceled.)

Woodturning Workshops

All workshops require previous turning experience and registration is required.

Each workshop is on a Saturday or Sunday from 9 am to 3 pm in our club facility at 2616 Old Greensboro Road. Tuition is $130 per workshop which includes instructions, lathe access, tool use and lunch. There may be an additional materials charge. To register for any of these workshops or if you have questions, please email: chwtworkshops@gmail.com. Check the calendar on our website at www.chwt.org for more details.

Create and Turn a Southwest Bowl

April 27, 2025

Instructor: Frank Penta

Workshop: $130 • Materials $20

Create a laminated bowl similar to Acoma Pueblo pottery. This involves gluing up a bowl with solid top and bottom pieces of wood and a center core of striped laminations wrapped around a waste core of wood. The participants will then glue the bowl to take home. They will then learn to turn and finish a Southwest bowl blank that will be provided.

Reserve your spot today!

Another great Sunday workshop this month in Chapel Hill, N.C. led by Frank Penta on April 27. This one involves glueing and turning a Southwest Bowl. The one you glue up will be to take home to turn, but at the workshop you will turn a bowl blank pre-glued in Frank's shop, so you'll end up with two of these beautiful and interesting bowls. Frank is an expert in designing and turning laminated pieces of all kinds. His enthusiasm for woodturning is infectious and his knowledge and skill at the art of woodturning is vast. Please join us for this informative learning experiences. Participant count is limited and reservations are needed, so contact us at chwtworkshops@gmail.com as soon as possible to ensure your place at one of our workshop's lathes.
